

Fluid Conveyance – Hydraulic & Pneumatic – Power Transmission – Electrical & Controls – Custom Engineering Solutions

Corey Griffin, Sr.
April 19, 2021

Corey is a seasoned sales professional with over 15 years of experience. His authentic, results-driven personality and customer-centric approach have been instrumental in helping him build trusted relationships across multiple industries.

Corey joins us by way of Elavon, a merchant services provider. As the National Sales Director, he interacted with decision-makers to influence, develop and maintain profitable business relationships. He also oversaw all account management, RFQ's and contract negotiations.

Corey has successfully held senior sales roles in distribution with Grainger and Nelson Jameson. He was the brand manager at Kraft foods for several product categories. At Vienna Beef, we was a senior sales rep responsible for a number of key accounts.

A basketball phenom from middle school through college, Corey holds a Bachelor's Degree from The University of Nebraska at Omaha, where he attended on a full athletic scholarship.

He has been married to his beautiful wife, Lanyea Griffin for six years and has two sons, Finis and CJ. Today, Corey enjoys taking trips with his family, coaching his sons, family game night on Thursdays, playing basketball, visiting his family in Atlanta, Running, and cheering for the Cubs, Bears, and Bulls.